

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA
STATESVILLE DIVISION
CRIMINAL ACTION NO. 5:15-CR-00015-KDB-DCK

THIS MATTER IS BEFORE THE COURT on the Government's Motion to Authorize Payment from Inmate Trust Account (Doc. No. 217) ("Motion"). The Defendant has not responded to the Government's motion. Therefore, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3613(a), 3664(n), and 3664(k), the Court GRANTS the United States' Motion.

BACKGROUND

In September 2016, Defendant Steven W. Chase was found guilty of engaging in a child exploitation enterprise, advertising child pornography, transportation of child pornography, and possession of child pornography involving a prepubescent minor or a minor who had not attained 12 years of age. (Doc. No. 98). In May 2017, the Court sentenced him to a total of three hundred sixty (360) months imprisonment and a lifetime of supervised release. (Doc. No. 136). The Court also imposed a $600.00 special assessment. Id. In May 2018, the Court amended the original judgment and ordered Defendant to pay $70,000 in restitution. (Doc. No. 205). To date, Defendant has paid the special assessment and $1,202.03 toward restitution. Defendant remains in federal custody and is currently assigned to the Terminal Island Federal Correctional Institution in San Pedro, California. He is scheduled to be released from federal custody in November 2040. The current balance of Defendant's restitution debt is $68,133.95.

The United States Attorney's Office recently learned that Defendant currently has $2,523.91 in his inmate trust account maintained by the Bureau of Prisons ("BOP"). The United States moves for entry of an order authorizing the BOP to turn over $2,323.91 of the funds held in Defendant's inmate trust account to the Clerk of Court as payment toward the restitution owed to the victims of Defendant's crime.

DISCUSSION

Title 18, United States Code, section 3613 sets out procedures for the United States to enforce criminal monetary penalties, including restitution and fines. See 18 U.S.C. §§ 3613(a) and (f). Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3613(c), upon entry of judgment, a lien arises against all the defendant's property and rights to property, including the defendant's interest in funds held by the BOP in his inmate trust account. See 18 U.S.C. § 3613(a) (United States may enforce restitution against all property and rights to property of the defendant).

The Mandatory Victims Restitution Act ("MVRA") permits the United States to use "all other available and reasonable means" to collect restitution. See 18 U.S.C. § 3664(m)(1)(A)(ii). The MVRA also requires that a defendant's substantial resources received from any source during his term of incarceration be applied to his outstanding restitution obligation. See 18 U.S.C. § 3664(n); see, e.g., United States v. Bryan Keith Flowers, Case No. 5:04-CR-00001, (W.D.N.C. September 16, 2021) (ordering turnover of funds in inmate trust account pursuant to § 3664(n) and § 361). The MVRA further authorizes the Court to order payment of a restitution obligation upon notice of a material change in a defendant's economic circumstances that affects his ability to pay restitution "as the interests of justice require." See 18 U.S.C. § 3664(k).

The funds at issue are currently in the Government's possession and the Government has a valid lien over the funds. Further, because the property at issue is cash, it does not fall within any applicable categories of exempt property that a defendant may claim in a criminal case. See 18 U.S.C. § 3613(a)(1) (setting forth the applicable IRS property exemptions for criminal cases). Thus, the Court concludes that an order authorizing the turnover of the Defendant's property is appropriate here.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Government's Motion to Authorize Payment from Inmate Trust Account (Doc. No. 217) is GRANTED, and the Bureau of Prisons is hereby authorized to turn over to the Clerk of Court $2,323.91 held in the inmate trust account for the Defendant as payment toward his restitution obligation in this case.

SO ORDERED.

United States District Judge
